GENERAL INFORMATION.

St. John's College enjoys the privileges of a University, and is conducted by members of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a pleasant and healthy part of Westchester County, thirteen miles distant from New York City Hall. The Harlem train from Forty-second Street, N. Y., and the Third Avenue horse cars lead directly to the College.

The grounds are extensive and beautiful.

Students presenting themselves for admission into this College, are examined by the Prefect of Studies, and are sent to the class for which they are found to be fitted. Promotion to a higher class depends on the result of the examinations. The general College examinations are held at the end of the months of January and June. Should any student be found, during the year, fitted for a higher class, he is promoted to that class, and such promotion is considered equivalent to the honors of the class from which he is promoted. Those, who fail in an examination, are sent to the class below, the one in which they fail, or are not promoted.

Every student, who presents himself for admission into this College, must furnish satisfactory testimony as to his good moral character, and if he has been in any other institution before coming here, he must show that he left it without discredit to himself.

Every Friday, a competition takes place in each class, upon some of the branches of study, according to the degree of the class. To the most successful competitors premiums and honors are awarded, either during the year, or at the annual commencement.

At the close of every month, the merits of all the classes are proclaimed before the entire College, and a rank for conduct and application is assigned to each student. To those who have the best marks at such proclamation, testimonials are given.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred at the close of the College Course. The candidates for this honor are required to undergo, before the Faculty, a successful examination in Natural, Mental, and Moral Philosophy, and in the higher Mathematics. Such candidates must also give evidence of progress in Greek and Latin, and in general literature.

Graduates, who desire a fuller mental training, may, in the Post Graduate class, apply during the second year, to the study of Natural Law, and other branches of higher education. At the end of this year, the degree of Master of Arts is conferred, after a satisfactory examination. This second year is of the highest importance to young men.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of government is firm, yet mild and paternal. The students form three distinct divisions, according to their age. Each division has its separate halls and playgrounds, its own gymnasium and officers.

The correspondence of students is subject to the inspection of the President.

Books, papers, periodicals, &c., are not allowed to circulate among the students, until they have been examined and sanctioned.

Students are not allowed to go beyond the College bounds, without special permission.

Neither are they allowed to visit New York City, unless for urgent reasons, and at the special request of parents or guardians. It is most important that such requests should be made as rarely as possible, because frequent visits to the city are very hurtful to the students, and very annoying to the College.

Every student coming to this College must accept its rules such as they are, and observe them faithfully. These rules are read and explained to all. The punishment, ordinarily inflicted on refractory students, consists in depriving them of a part of their recreation or holidays, and imposing on them some literary labor during that time.

Every student must respect and obey the officers who preside over him.

The ordinary causes of dismissal are: continued inapplication to study, and bad conduct.

Semi-annual reports are sent to parents or guardians, respecting the progress, application, health, &c., of their sons or wards.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday in June, and closes on the first Wednesday in September. Students should be at College on opening day, because competition for prizes begins at the very commencement of the session.

There is a vacation of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

EXPENSES.

The College terms, payable half-yearly in advance, are the following:

Entrance Fee	$10
Board and Tuition	300
Washing and Bedding	30
Medical Attendance	5
Use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus	5
Drawing	60
Piano	60
Use of Piano	10
Violin—Flute, each	60
Spanish	20
German	20
Day Scholars	60

N.B.—No deduction for less than a month.

There are other slight expenses for societies and games which the students form among themselves.

There is no extra charge for the study of French.

Books, stationery, clothes, &c., can be furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by parents or guardians. There is no uniform obligatory on the students; all the College requires in the matter of clothing, is, that each student should have, in quality and quantity, what befits a young gentleman. Each one should, at the beginning of the year, bring enough of clothing to last until Christmas.

Every student should be provided with a suitable number of napkins.

No advances are made by the College for clothing, or for any similar purpose, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons only a moderate sum, and that this be left, not with their sons, but with the Treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest, or occasion require.

Students coming from a foreign country, or from a distance exceeding five hundred miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the city of New York, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

SPECIFICATION OF STUDIES.

Students of this course can obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science, provided they pass satisfactorily the required examination.

They can also study German, Spanish, and Drawing, but these branches form extra charges.

Besides, there are in the College some supplementary classes, viz.:

1st. A special Latin Class, which is intended to advance young men who come too late in the year, or are too old to go into the ordinary grammar classes. The members of this class receive no other prize than that of promotion to the regular class, which their success in the January or June examination entitles them to enter.

2d. A Preparatory Class, in which young boys are fitted to enter either of the College Courses of Study.

3d. A Special Class for Spaniards and others, who do not know any, or enough of English, to allow them to take rank in the ordinary classes.

Studies will be resumed on Wednesday, September 6th, 1871.

St. John's Debating Society

was organized in 1854. Its object is to accustom its members, by means of literary discussion, to speak with ease and fluency on useful and interesting subjects.

The President and Vice-President are elected annually; the President by the Faculty, the Vice-President by the members of the Society.

A Gold Medal, worth fifty dollars, is yearly awarded to the writer of the best biographical essay on some eminent Catholic layman of our own time, or of past ages. The prize originated with the Most Rev. John Hughes, Archbishop of New York. Since it was suggested by that illustrious prelate, the medal has been given every year by friends of the College.

In this connection, we would respectfully suggest to the friends of the College, a very good and honorable work, namely, the founding of prizes and scholarships. Such foundations would stimulate young men to greater ardor for serious studies, and while showing the public spirit and zeal of the founders, for education, would enable the College to bestow higher rewards on successful exertions.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

This Institution enjoys the privileges of a University, and is conducted by members of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a pleasant and healthy part of Westchester County, thirteen miles distant from New York City Hall. The Harlem trains from the Forty-Second Street Depot, and the Third Avenue horse cars, lead directly to the College gate. The grounds are extensive and beautiful.

Students presenting themselves for admission, whether coming from their homes, or from other colleges, are required to furnish proof of their good moral character. They are next examined by the Prefect of Studies, and then placed in the class for which they are judged to be fitted. Promotion to a higher class depends on the success obtained in the examinations. There are two general examinations during the scholastic year, namely, one at the end of January and the other in June, immediately before the Commencement. Should a student fail in the first of these examinations, he is obliged to go to a lower class, or withdraw from the College. Those who are unsuccessful in the June examination are not promoted, so that, if they wish to return to the College at the September term, they must remain in the same class.

Once every week there is in each class a written competition in some branch of study.

At the end of every month, the rank of each student for conduct and application is publicly read out in the College hall, and rewards are given to those who deserve them.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred at the close of the College course. The candidates for this honor are required to undergo, before the Faculty, a successful examination in Natural, Mental, and Moral Philosophy, and in the higher Mathematics. Such candidates must also give evidence of progress in Greek and Latin, and in General Literature.

Graduates who desire a fuller mental training may, in the Post Graduate class, apply during the second year of Philosophy to the study of Natural Law, and other branches of higher education. At the end of this year the degree of Master of Arts is conferred, after a satisfactory examination. This second year is of the highest importance to young men. Those who come to the College for this course have to observe the same rules as the other students.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of government is firm, yet mild and paternal. The students form three distinct divisions, according to their age. Each division has its separate halls and playgrounds, its own gymnasium and officers.

The correspondence of students is subject to the inspection of the President.

Books, papers, periodicals, etc., are not allowed to circulate among the students until they have been examined and sanctioned.

Students are never permitted to go beyond the College bounds without special permission.

No student can visit New York City unless for urgent reasons, and at the special request of parents or guardians. It is most important that such requests should be made as rarely as possible, because frequent visits to the City may be very hurtful to the students and very annoying to the College.

Every student coming to this College must accept its rules such as they are and observe them faithfully. These rules are read and explained to all. The punishment ordinarily inflicted on refractory students consists in depriving them of a part of their recreation or holidays, and imposing on them some literary labor during that time.

Every student must respect and obey the officers who preside over him.

The ordinary causes of dismissal are: continued inapplication to study and bad conduct.

Semi-annual reports are sent to parents or guardians respecting the progress, application, health, &c., of their sons or wards.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday in June, and closes on the first Wednesday in September. Students should be at College on opening day, because competition for prizes begins at the very commencement of the session.

There is a vacation of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

EXPENSES.

The College terms, payable half-yearly in advance, are the following:

Entrance fee	$10
Board and Tuition	300
Washing and Bedding	30
Medical Attendance	5
Use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus	5
Drawing	60
Piano	60
Use of Piano	10
Violin—Flute, each	60
Spanish	20
German	20
Day Scholars	60

No deduction for less than a month.

There are other slight expenses for societies and games which the students form among themselves.

There is no extra charge for the study of French.

Books, stationery, clothes, &c., can be furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by parents or guardians. There is no uniform obligatory on the students; all the College requires in the matter of clothing is, that each student should have, in quality and quantity, what befits a young gentleman. Each one should, at the beginning of the year, bring enough of clothing to last until Christmas.

Every student should be provided with a suitable number of napkins.

No advances are made by the College for clothing, or for any similar purpose, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

With regard to pocket money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons only a moderate sum, and that this be left, not with their sons, but with the Treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest or occasion require.

Students coming from a foreign country, or from a distance exceeding five hundred miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the City of New York, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

The instruction furnished by this College is of two kinds—Classical and Commercial.

CLASSICAL COURSE.

First Term.—Ethics.

Second Term.—Civil, Political, and International Law. In this, as well as in the first year of Philosophy, the students are obliged to defend their theses, both in class and before the Faculty, against some of their own number, or against professors and others appointed to attack them. Such discussions are usually carried on in Latin. The members of this class are required to write Dissertations and Essays, in English, on the various matters of their course. At the end of the second term, Essays on three different subjects, already treated in class, are written, and to the best is awarded a gold medal worth fifty dollars.

Various branches of Natural Science, and the Modern Languages, can be studied in this course.

To this year is also reserved the History of Philosophy.

DURING THE COLLEGIATE YEAR,

Professor Fitzpatriek gave 28 Lectures on Astronomy.
Professor Jouin „ 20 Lectures on Geology.
Professor Arpin „ 15 Lectures on Physiology.

COMMERCIAL COURSE.

This course embraces all the branches of a good English Education. It is completed in four years. However, all that is absolutely necessary for Mercantile purposes can be learned in the first and second years; especially when students have previously been subjected to the training of the two Preparatory Classes. The third and fourth years are destined for young men who seek something higher than what is taught in an ordinary English school.

French.—Bossuet and Fléchier's Funeral Discourses.
Natural Philosophy.—Snell's Olmsted.
Mathematics.—Calculus.
Astronomy.—Loomis' Treatise on Astronomy.
History.—Lectures.
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

Students of this course can obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science, provided they pass satisfactorily the required examination.

They can also study German, Spanish, and Drawing, but these branches form extra charges.

Besides, there are in the College some supplementary classes, viz.:

1st. A special Latin Class, which is intended to advance young men who come too late in the year, or are too old to enter the ordinary grammar classes. The students of this class receive no other prize than that of promotion to the regular class, which their success in the January or June examination entitles them to enter.

2d. Two Preparatory Classes, in which young boys are fitted to enter either of the College courses of study.

3d. A Special Class for Spaniards and others, who do not know any, or enough of English to allow them to take rank in the ordinary classes.

4th. Special Classes for French, German, and Spanish.

Studies will be resumed on Wednesday, September 4th, 1872.

St. John's Debating Society

was organized in 1854. Its object is to accustom its members, by means of literary discussion, to speak with ease and fluency on useful and interesting subjects.

The President and Vice-President are elected annually; the President by the Faculty, the Vice-President by the members of the Society.

Those for 1871–'72, are:

WILLIAM J. DOHERTY, S.J.,
President.

WILLIAM AHEARN,
Vice-President.

The other officers are elected semi-annually.

A Gold Medal, worth fifty dollars, is yearly awarded to the writer of the best biographieal essay on some eminent Catholic layman of the present time, or of past ages. This prize originated with the Most Rev. John Hughes, Archbishop of New York. Sinee it was suggested by that illustrious prelate, the medal has been given every year by friends of the College.

We would respectfully suggest to the friends of the College a very good and honorable work, namely, the founding of prizes and scholarships. Such foundations would stimulate young men to greater ardor for serious studies, and, while showing the public spirit and zeal of the founders for education, would enable the College to bestow higher rewards on suecessful exertions.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

This Institution enjoys the privileges of a University, and is conducted by members of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a pleasant and healthy part of Westchester County, thirteen miles distant from New York City Hall. The Harlem trains from the Forty-second Street Depot, and the Third Avenue horse cars, lead directly to the College gate. The grounds are extensive and beautiful.

Students presenting themselves for admission, whether coming from their homes, or from other colleges, are required to furnish proof of their good moral character. They are next examined by the Prefect of Studies, and then placed in the class for which they are judged to be fitted. Promotion to a higher class depends on the success obtained in the examinations. There are two general examinations during the scholastic year, namely, one at the end of January and the other in June, immediately before the Commencement. Should a student fail in the first of these examinations, he is obliged to go to a lower class, or withdraw from the College. Those who are unsuccessful in the June examination are not promoted, so that, if they wish to return to the College at the September term, they must remain in the same class.

Once every week there is in each class a written competition in some branch of study.

At the end of every month, the rank of each student for conduct and application is publicly read out in the College hall, and rewards are given to those who deserve them.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred at the close of the College course. The candidates for this honor are required to undergo, before the Faculty, a successful examination in Natural, Mental and Moral Philosophy, and in the higher Mathematics. Such candidates must also give evidence of progress in Greek and Latin, and in General Literature.

Graduates who desire a fuller mental training may, in the Post-Graduate class, apply during the second year of Philosophy to the study of Natural Law, and other branches of higher education. At the end of this year the degree of Master of Arts is conferred, after a satisfactory examination. This second year is of the highest importanee to young men. Those who eome to the College for this eourse have to observe the same rules as the other students.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of government is firm, yet mild and paternal. The students form three distinct divisions, according to their age. Each division has its separate halls and playgrounds, its own gymnasium and officers.

The correspondence of students is subject to the inspection of the President.

Books, papers, periodicals, etc., are not allowed to circulate among the students until they have been examined and sanctioned.

Students are never permitted to go beyond the College bounds without special permission.

No student can visit New York City unless for urgent reasons, and at the special request of parents or guardians. It is most important that such requests should be made as rarely as possible, because frequent visits to the city may be very hurtful to the students and very annoying to the College.

Every student coming to this College must accept its rules, such as they are, and observe them faithfully. These rules are read and explained to all. The punishment ordinarily inflicted on refractory students consists in depriving them of a part of their recreation or holidays, and imposing on them some literary labor during that time.

Every student must respect and obey the officers who preside over him.

The ordinary causes of dismissal are: continued inapplication to study and bad eonduct.

Semi-annual reports are sent to parents or guardians respecting the progress, application, health, &c., of their sons or wards.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday in June, and closes on the first Wednesday in September. Students should be at College on opening day, because competition for prizes begins at the very commencement of the session.

There is a vacation of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

EXPENSES.

The College terms, payable yearly in advance, are the following:

Entrance fee	$10
Board and Tuition	300
Washing and Bedding	30
Medical Attendance	5
Use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus	5
Drawing	60
Piano	60
Use of Piano	10
Violin—Flute, each	60
Spanish	20
German	20
Day Scholars	60

No deduction for less than a month.

There are other slight expenses for societies and games which the students form among themselves.

There is no extra charge for the study of French.

Books, stationery, clothes, &c., can be furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by parents or guardians. There is no uniform obligatory on the students; all the College requires in the matter of clothing is, that each student should have, in quality and quantity, what befits a young gentleman. Each one should, at the beginning of the year, bring enough of clothing to last until Christmas.

Every student should be provided with a suitable number of napkins.

No advances are made by the College for clothing, or for any similar purpose, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons only a moderate sum, and that this be left, not with their sons, but with the Treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest or occasion require.

Students coming from a foreign country, or from a distance exceeding five hundred miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the City of New York, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

The instruction furnished by this College is of two kinds—Classical and Commercial.

CLASSICAL COURSE.

III.

POST-GRADUATE DEPARTMENT.

First Term.—Ethics.

Second Term.—Civil, Political, and International Law. In this, as well as in the first year of Philosophy, the students are obliged to defend their theses, both in class and before the Faculty, against some of their own number, or against professors and others appointed to attack them. Such discussions are usually carried on in Latin. The members of this class are required to write Dissertations and Essays, in English, on the various matters of their course. At the end of the second term, Essays on three different subjects, already treated in class, are written, and to the best is awarded a gold metal worth fifty dollars.

Various branches of Natural Science, and the Modern Languages, can be studied in this course.

To this year is also reserved the History of Philosophy.

COMMERCIAL COURSE.

This course embraces all the branches of a good English Education. It is completed in four years. However, all that is absolutely necessary for Mercantile purposes can be learned in the first and second years; especially when students have previously been subjected to the training of the two Preparatory Classes. The third and fourth years are destined for young men who seek something higher than what is taught in an ordinary English school.

FIRST YEAR.

English.—Grammar. Letter-writing. Narrations. Elocution.
French.—Keetel's New Method.
History.—Fredet's Ancient History.
Geography.—Cornell's Geography.
Arithmetic.—Davies' University Arithmetic.

Book-Keeping.—Single and Double Entry (reviewed).
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

FOURTH YEAR.

Philosophy.—Mental and Moral Philosophy.
English.—Essays. Debating Society.
French.—Bossuet and Fléchier's Funeral Discourses.
Natural Philosophy.—Snell's Olmstead.
Mathematics.—Calculus.
Astronomy.—Loomis' Treatise on Astronomy.
History.—Lectures.
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

Students of this course can obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science, provided they pass satisfactorily the required examination.

They can also study German, Spanish, and Drawing, but these branches form extra charges.

Besides, there are in the College some supplementary classes, viz:

1st. A special Latin Class, which is intended to advance young men who come too late in the year, or are too old to enter the ordinary grammar classes. The students of this class are promoted to the regular class, which their success in the January or June examination entitles them to enter.

2d. Two Preparatory Classes, in which young boys are fitted to enter either of the College courses of study.

3d. A Special Class for Spaniards and others, who do not know any, or enough of English to allow them to take rank in the ordinary classes.

4th. Special Classes for French, German, and Spanish.

Studies will be resumed on Wednesday, September 3d, 1873.

St. John's Historical Association.

This Assoeiation was organized March 26th, 1862. Its object is to promote the investigation and diffusion of historic truth. Regular meetings are held semi-monthly. The Moderator is appointed by the Faculty. The President and others officers are elected semi-annually by the members.

A Gold Medal, worth fifty dollars, is yearly awarded to the writer of the best biographical essay on some eminent Catholic layman of the present time, or of past ages. This prize originated with the Most Rev. John Hughes, Archbishop of New York. Since it was suggested by that illustrious prelate, the medal has been given every year by friends of the College.

We would respectfully suggest to the friends of the College a very good and honorable work, namely, the founding of prizes and scholarships. Sueh foundations would stimulate young men to greater ardor for serious studies, and, while showing the public spirit and zeal of the founders for education, would enable the College to bestow higher rewards on successful exertions.

St. John's Debating Society

was organized in 1854. Its object is to accustom its members, by means of literary discussion, to speak with ease and fluency on useful and interesting subjects.

The President and Vice-President are elected annually; the President by the Faculty, the Vice-President by the members of the Society.

Those for 1872–'73, are:

THOMAS J. CAMPBELL, S. J.,
President.

GEORGE E. QUIN,
Vice-President.

The other officers are elected semi-annually.

First Term.

John Sweeney Corresponding Sec'y.
Horace K. Doherty Recording Sec'y.
John P. O'Brien Treasurer.
Michael McDermott Librarian.
Thomas B. Minahan First Censor.
Peter L. Mulally Second Censor.

Second Term.

Charles C. Marrin Corresponding Sec'y.
John Dickson Recording Sec'y.
Francis Kernan Treasurer.
John P. O'Brien Librarian.
Bernard Reilly First Censor.
Thomas Kearney Second Censor.

St. John's Literary Society

Was organized in 1870. Its aim is to enable the members, by means of essays and discussions, to extend their knowledge of English Literature, and to speak and write, with ease and correctness, on subjects connected with their studies.

The President is appointed by the faculty. The Vice-President and other officers are elected semi-annually by the members.

During the past year the officers were:

REV. MICHAEL FLYNN, S. J.,
President.

FIRST TERM.

DANIEL CAMPAU Vice-President.
JOHN GRIFFIN Recording Sec'y.
N. HARPER STEWARD Corresponding Sec'y.
JOHN COGHLIN Treasurer.
JAMES COSTELLO First Censor.
JAMES MCQUADE Second Censor.

SECOND TERM.

JAMES MCALOON Vice-President.
N. HARPER STEWARD Recording Sec'y.
JAMES MCQUADE Corresponding Sec'y.
JOHN COGHLIN Treasurer.
RICHARD NEVINS First Censor.
JAMES PENDERGAST Second Censor.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

This Institution enjoys the privileges of a University, and is conducted by members of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a pleasant and healthy part of Westchester County, thirteen miles distant from New York City Hall. The Harlem trains from the Forty-second Street Depot, and the Third Avenue horse cars, lead directly to the College gate. The grounds are extensive and beautiful.

Students presenting themselves for admission, whether coming from their homes, or from other colleges, are required to furnish proof of their good moral character. They are next examined by the Prefect of Studies, and then placed in the class for which they are judged to be fitted. Promotion to a higher class depends on the success obtained in the examinations. There are two general examinations during the scholastic year, namely, one at the end of January and the other in June, immediately before the Commencement. Should a student fail in the first of these examinations, he is obliged to go to a lower class, or withdraw from the College. Those who are unsuccessful in the June examination are not promoted, so that, if they wish to return to the College at the September term, they must remain in the same class.

Once every week there is in each class a written competition in some branch of study.

At the end of every month, the rank of each student for conduct and application is publicly read out in the College hall, and rewards are given to those who deserve them.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred at the close of the College course. The candidates for this honor are required to undergo, before the Faculty, a successful examination in Natural, Mental and Moral Philosophy, and in the higher Mathematics. Such candidates must also give evidence of progress in Greek and Latin, and in General Literature.

Graduates who desire a fuller mental training may, in the Post-Graduate class, apply during the second year of Philosophy to the study of Natural Law, and other branches of higher education. At the end of this year the degree of Master of Arts is conferred, after a satisfactory examination. This second year is of the highest importance to young men. Those who come to the College for this course have to observe the same rules as the other students.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of government is firm, yet mild and paternal. The students form three distinct divisions, according to their age. Each division has its separate halls and playgrounds, its own gymnasium and officers.

The correspondence of students is subject to the inspection of the President.

Books, papers, periodicals, etc., are not allowed to circulate among the students until they have been examined and sanctioned.

Students are never permitted to go beyond the College bounds without special permission.

No student can visit New York City unless for urgent reasons, and at the special request of parents or guardians. It is most important that such requests should be made as rarely as possible, because frequent visits to the city may be very hurtful to the students and very annoying to the College.

Every student coming to this College must accept its rules, such as they are, and observe them faithfully. These rules are read and explained to all. The punishment ordinarily inflicted on refractory students consists in depriving them of a part of their recreation or holidays, and imposing on them some literary labor during that time.

Every student must respect and obey the officers who preside over him.

The ordinary causes of dismissal are : continued inapplication to study, and bad conduct.

Semi-annual reports are sent to parents or guardians respecting the progress, application, health, etc., of their sons or wards.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday in June, and closes on the the first Wednesday in September. Students should be at College on opening day, because competition for prizes begins at the very commencement of the session.

There is a vacation of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

EXPENSES.

The College terms, payable yearly in advance, are the following:

Entrance fee	$10
Board and Tuition	300
Washing and Bedding	30
Medical Attendance	5
Use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus	5
Drawing	60
Piano	60
Use of Piano	10
Violin—Flute, each	60
Spanish	20
German	20
Day Scholars	60

No deduction for less than a month.

There are other slight expenses for societies and games which the students form among themselves.

There is no extra charge for the study of French.

Books, stationery, clothes, &c., can be furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by parents or guardians. There is no uniform obligatory on the students; all the College requires in the matter of clothing is, that each student should have, in quality and quantity, what befits a young gentleman. Each one should, at the beginning of the year, bring enough of clothing to last until Christmas.

Every student should be provided with a suitable number of napkins.

No advances are made by the College for clothing, or for any similar purpose, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons only a moderate sum, and that this be left, not with their sons, but with the Treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest or occasion require.

Students coming from a foreign country, or from a distance exceeding five hundred miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the City of New York, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

The instruction furnished by this College is of two kinds—Classical and Commercial.

 These four Under-graduate classes correspond to the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes of other Colleges.

III.

POST-GRADUATE DEPARTMENT.

First Term.—Ethics.

Second Term.—Civil, Political, and International Law. In this, as well as in the first year of Philosophy, the students are obliged to defend their theses, both in class and before the Faculty, against some of their own number, or against professors and others appointed to attack them. Such discussions are usually carried on in Latin. The members of this class are required to write Dissertations and Essays, in English, on the various matters of their course. At the end of the second term, Essays on three different subjects, already treated in class, are written, and to the best is awarded a gold medal worth fifty dollars.

Various branches of Natural Science, and the Modern Languages, can be studied in this course.

To this year is also reserved the History of Philosophy.

COMMERCIAL COURSE.

This course embraces all the branches of a good English Education. It is completed in four years. However, all that is absolutely necessary for Mercantile purposes can be learned in the first and second years; especially when students have previously been subjected to the training of the two Preparatory Classes. The third and fourth years are destined for young men who seek something higher than what is taught in an ordinary English school.

FIRST YEAR.

English.—Grammar. Letter-writing. Narrations. Elocution.
French.—Keetel's New Method.
History.—Fredet's Ancient History.
Geography.—Cornell's Geography.
Arithmetic.—Davies' University Arithmetic.
Writing.—Lessons.
Book-keeping.—Bryant and Stratton's Course. (Single Entry.)
Catechism.—Short Catechism.

SECOND YEAR.

English.—Grammar. Quackenbos' English Composition.
French.—Keetel's New Method (continued). Perrin's Fables.
History.—Fredet's Modern History.
Geography.—Cornell's Geography.
Mathematics.—Algebra. Geometry.
Book-keeping.—Bryant and Stratton's Course. (Double Entry.)
Catechism.—Gaume's Catechism of Perseverance.

THIRD YEAR.

English.—Rhetoric. History of English Literature. Debating Society.
French.—Keetel's New Method (continued). Chapsal's Reader.
History.—Modern History.

Mathematics.—Trigonometry. Surveying.
Natural Sciences.—Botany. Physiology.
Chemistry.—Rolfe and Gillet's Chemistry.
Book-keeping.—Single and Double Entry (reviewed)
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

FOURTH YEAR.

Philosophy.—Mental and Moral Philosophy.
English.—Essays. Debating Society.
French.—Bossuet and Fléchier's Funeral Discourses.
Natural Philosophy.—Snell's Olmsted.
Mathematics.—Calculus.
Astronomy.—Loomis' Treatise on Astronomy.
History.—Lectures.
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

Students of this course can obtain the degree of Bachelor of Science, provided they pass satisfactorily the required examination.

They can also study German, Spanish, and Drawing, but these branches form extra charges.

Besides, there are in the College some supplementary classes, viz.:

1st. A special Latin Class, which is intended to advance young men who come too late in the year, or are too old to enter the ordinary grammar classes. The students of this class are promoted to the regular class, which their success in the January or June examination entitles them to enter.

2d. Two Preparatory Classes, in which young boys are fitted to enter either of the College courses of study.

3d. A Special Class for Spaniards and others, who do not know any, or enough of English to allow them to take rank in the ordinary classes.

4th. Special Classes for French, German, and Spanish.

Studies will be resumed on Wednesday, September 2d, 1874.

St. John's Historical Association.

This Association was organized March 26th, 1862. Its object is to promote the investigation and diffusion of historical truth. Regular meetings are held semi-monthly. The Moderator is appointed by the Faculty. The President and other officers are elected semi-annually by the members.

During the past year the officers were:

FIRST TERM.

JOSEPH F. CARLIN President.
ROBERT TOUHEY Vice-President.
JOSEPH ROGERS Corresponding Sec'y.
PETER J. CURREN Recording Sec'y.
JOSEPH C. AUSTIN Treasurer.
BERNARD J. REILLY Librarian.

SECOND TERM.

MICHAEL T. MCDERMOTT President.
JOSEPH ROGERS Vice-President.
HOMER G. MURPHY Corresponding Sec'y.
JOHN F. LEARY Recording Sec'y.
WILLIAM KEEGAN Treasurer.
JOHN C. MCBRIDE Librarian.

A Gold Medal, worth fifty dollars, is yearly awarded to the writer of the best biographical essay on some eminent Catholic layman of the present times, or of past ages. This prize originated with the Most Rev. John Hughes, Archbishop of New York. Since it was suggested by that illustrious prelate, the medal has been given every year by friends of the College.

We would respectfully suggest to the friends of the College a very good and honorable work, namely, the founding of prizes and scholarships. Such foundations would stimulate young men to greater ardor for serious studies, and, while showing the public spirit and zeal of the founders for education, would enable the College to bestow higher rewards on successful exertions.

St. John's Debating Society

was organized in 1854. Its object is to accustom its members, by means of literary discussion, to speak with ease and fluency on useful and interesting subjects.

The President and Vice-President are elected annually; the President by the Faculty, the Vice-President by the members of the Society.

Those for 1873–'74, are:

Rev. EDWARD DOUCET, S. J.,

President.

JOHN P. O'BRIEN,

Vice-President.

The other officers are elected semi-annually.

FIRST TERM.

Thomas B. Minahan Corresponding Sec'y.
Peter L. Mullally Recording Sec'y.
William McCormick Treasurer.
Bernard J. Reilly Librarian.
Alfred T. Moran First Censor.
Louis F. Haffen Second Censor.

SECOND TERM.

Horace K. Doherty Corresponding Sec'y.
William S. Keegan Recording Sec'y.
John J. Dorian Treasurer.
John F. Leary Librarian.
Edward J. Farribault First Censor.
Thomas Kearney Second Censor.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

This Institution enjoys the privileges of a University, and is conducted by members of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a pleasant and healthy part of Westchester County, thirteen miles distant from New York City Hall. The Harlem trains from the Forty-second Street Depot, and the Third Avenue horse cars, lead directly to the College gate. The grounds are extensive and beautiful.

Students presenting themselves for admission, whether coming from their homes, or from other colleges, are required to furnish proof of their good moral character. They are next examined by the Prefect of Studies, and then placed in the class for which they are judged to be fitted. Promotion to a higher class depends on the success obtained in the examinations. There are two general examinations during the scholastic year, namely, one at the end of January and the other in June, immediately before the Commencement. Should a student fail in the first of these examinations, he is obliged to go to a lower class, or withdraw from the College. Those who are unsuccessful in the June examination are not promoted, so that, if they wish to return to the College at the September term, they must remain in the same class.

Once every week there is in each class a written competition in some branch of study.

At the end of every month, the rank of each student for conduct and application is publicly read out in the College hall, and rewards are given to those who deserve them.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts is conferred at the close of the College course. The candidates for this honor are required to undergo, before the Faculty, a successful examination in Natural, Mental and Moral Philosophy, and in the higher Mathematics. Such candidates must also give evidence of progress in Greek and Latin, and in General Literature.

Graduates who desire a fuller mental training may, in the Post-Graduate class, apply during the second year of Philosophy to the study of Natural Law, and other branches of higher education. At the end of this year the degree of Master of Arts is conferred, after a satisfactory examination. This second year is of the highest importance to young men. Those who come to the College for this course have to observe the same rules as the other students.

DISCIPLINE.

The system of government is firm, yet mild and paternal. The students form three distinct divisions, according to their age. Each division has its separate halls and playgrounds, its own gymnasium and officers.

The correspondence of students is subject to the inspection of the President.

Books, papers, periodicals, etc., are not allowed to circulate among the students until they have been examined and sanctioned.

Students are not permitted to go beyond the College bounds without leave and without the company of an officer of the house.

No student can visit New York City unless for urgent reasons, and at the special request of parents or guardians. The President insists that such requests should be made as rarely as possible.

Every student coming to this College must accept its rules, such as they are, and observe them faithfully. These rules are read and explained to all. The punishment ordinarily inflicted on refractory students consists in depriving them of a part of their recreation or holidays, and imposing on them some literary labor during that time.

Every student must respect and obey the officers who preside over him.

The ordinary causes of dismissal are: continued inapplication to study, and bad conduct.

Semi-annual reports are sent to parents or guardians respecting the progress, application, health, etc., of their sons or wards.

The annual vacation begins on the last Wednesday in June, and closes on the first Wednesday in September. Students should be at College on opening day, because competition for prizes begins at the very commencement of the session.

There is a vacation of one week at Christmas, but none at Easter.

EXPENSES.

The College terms, payable yearly in advance, are the following:

Entrance fee	$10
Board and Tuition	300
Washing and Bedding	30
Medical attendance	5
Use of Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus	5
Drawing	60
Piano	60
Use of Piano	10
Violin—Flute, each	60
Spanish	20
German	20
Day Scholars	60

No deduction for less than a month.

There are other slight expenses for societies and games which the students form among themselves.

There is no extra charge for the study of French.

Books, stationery, clothes, &c., can be furnished by the College at current prices, or may be procured by parents or guardians. There is no uniform obligatory on the students; all the College requires in the matter of clothing is, that each student should have, in quality and quantity, what befits a young gentleman. Each one should, at the beginning of the year, bring enough of clothing to last until Christmas.

Every student should be provided with a suitable number of napkins.

No advances are made by the College for clothing, or for any similar purpose, unless an equivalent sum be deposited in the hands of the Treasurer.

With regard to pocket-money, it is desirable that parents should allow their sons only a moderate sum, and that this be left, not with their sons, but with the Treasurer of the College, to be given as prudence may suggest or occasion require.

Students coming from a foreign country, or from a distance exceeding five hundred miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the City of New York, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.

COURSE OF STUDIES.

The instruction furnished by this College is of two kinds—Classical and Commercial.

CLASSICAL COURSE.

 These four Under-graduate classes correspond to the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes of other Colleges.

III.

POST-GRADUATE DEPARTMENT.

First Term.—Ethics.

Second Term.—Civil, Political, and International Law. In this, as well as in the first year of Philosophy, the students are obliged to defend their theses, both in class and before the Faculty, against some of their own number, or against professors and others appointed to attack them. Such discussions are usually carried on in Latin. The members of this class are required to write Dissertations and Essays, in English, on the various matters of their course. At the end of the second term, Essays on three different subjects, already treated in class, are written, and to the best is awarded a gold medal worth fifty dollars.

Various branches of Natural Science, and the Modern Languages, can be studied in this course.

To this year is also reserved the History of Philosophy.

COMMERCIAL COURSE.

This course embraces all the branches of a good English Education. It is completed in four years. However, all that is absolutely necessary for Mercantile purposes can be learned in the first and second years; especially when students have previously been subjected to the training of the two Preparatory Classes. The third and fourth years are destined for young men who seek something higher than what is taught in an ordinary English school.

FIRST YEAR.

French.—Bossuet and Fléchier's Funeral Discourses.
Natural Philosophy.—Snell's Olmsted.
Mathematics.—Calculus.
Astronomy.—Loomis' Treatise on Astronomy.
History.—Lectures.
Religious Instruction.—Evidences of Religion.

Students of this course, provided they pass satisfactorily the required examination, can obtain a Commercial Certificate.

They can also study German, Spanish, and Drawing, but these branches form extra charges.

Besides, there are in the College some supplementary classes, viz.:

1st. A special Latin Class, which is intended to advance young men who come too late in the year, or are too old to enter the ordinary grammar classes. The students of this class are promoted to the regular class, which their success in the January or June examination entitles them to enter.

2d. Two Preparatory Classes, in which young boys are fitted to enter either of the College courses of study.

3d. A Special Class for Spaniards and others who do not know any, or enough of English to allow them to take rank in the ordinary classes.

4th. Special Classes for French, German, and Spanish.

Studies will be resumed on Wednesday, September 8th, 1875.

St. John's Historical Association.

This Association was organized March 26th, 1862. Its object is to promote the investigation and diffusion of historical truth. Regular meetings are held semi-monthly. The Moderator is appointed by the Faculty. The President and other officers are elected semi-annually by the members.

During the past year the officers were:

FIRST TERM.

Homer G. Murphy.....President.
Thomas J. Dunphy.....Vice-President.
Stephen A. Wall.....Corresponding Sec'y.
P. Jerome Curren.....Recording Sec'y.
John J. Dorian.....Treasurer.
Louis F. Haffen.....Librarian.

SECOND TERM.

——— ———.....President.
Thomas J. Dunphy.....Vice-President.
Stephen A. Wall.....Corresponding Sec'y.
P. Jerome Curren.....Recording Sec'y.
Louis F. Haffen.....Treasurer.
George C. O'Keeffe.....Librarian.

A Gold Medal, worth fifty dollars, is yearly awarded to the writer of the best biographical essay on some eminent Catholic layman of the present times, or of past ages. This prize originated with the Most Rev. John Hughes, Archbishop of New York. Since it was suggested by that illustrious prelate, the medal has been given every year by friends of the College.

We would respectfully suggest to the friends of the College a very good and honorable work, namely, the founding of prizes and scholarships. Such foundations would stimulate young men to greater ardor for serious studies, and, while showing the public spirit and zeal of the founders for education, would enable the College to bestow higher rewards on successful exertions.

St. John's Debating Society

was organized in 1854. Its object is to accustom its members, by means of literary discussion, to speak with ease and fluency on useful and interesting subjects.

The President and Vice-President are elected annually; the President by the Faculty, the Vice-President by the members of the Society.

Those for 1874–'75 are:

PATRICK A. HALPIN, S. J.,

President.

WILLIAM A. DUNPHY,

Vice-President.

The other officers are elected semi-annually.

St. John's Dramatic Association

was organized in 1871. It aims at accustoming its members, by means of dramatic readings and representations, to appear in public with greater ease and grace. The Moderator is appointed by the Faculty. The other officers, with the exception of the Stage Directors, are elected semi-annually, by the members.

The officers for the past year were:

FIRST TERM.

John B. Dorian	President.
David J. Hogan	Vice-President.
P. Jerome Curren	Secretary.
Timothy J. Dooley	Treasurer.
Stephen A. Wall, James McQuade	Stage Directors.

SECOND TERM.
